

1

IT'S ME, LANDON (C'EST MOI, LANDON)

Landon Moise
Na-Déné, Clearwater River

Eight-year-old Landon Moise shows us around his favourite forested spots in his home community, Clearwater River Dene Nation. He explains why the environment is important.

2

WEARING MY CULTURE (JE PORTE MA CULTURE)

Ulivia Uviluk
Inuk, Kangirsuk

Wearing my Culture explores the pride that individuals in Inuit communities take in making and wearing their winter apparel. Thomassie looks at the bonds that are created within family, culture, and the environment through the creation of clothing.

3

6 MINUTES/KM

Catherine Boivin
Atikamekw, Odanak

In rhythm with the footsteps of her Atikamekw ancestors, Catherine immerses us in the dreamlike universe of her morning runs.

4

THE THREE SISTERS COMMUNITY GARDEN

Zachary Greenleaf
Mi'gmaq, Gesgapegiag

With the help of his friends, Zachary Greenleaf, a young Mi'gmaq from Gesgapegiag, tries to reintroduce the "three sisters" (white corn, squash and beans used in Indigenous gardens) in his community.

5

MISSING OFFERING (L'OFFRANDE OUBLIÉE)

Raymond Caplin
Mi'gmaq, Montreal

A young hunter learns an important lesson after forgetting the offering in the woods. Missing Offering is based on a Mi'gmaq legend of the stone dwarves called Pukulatmuj or Wiklatmu'j.

6

TONY (A DAY IN HIS LIFE)

Tony Sappier
Wolastoqiyik, Tobique

Beginning with an early-morning moose hunt, this portrait of Tony (Havard) Sappier, a well-known moose-hunter and figure in the community of Tobique First Nation, provides a moving and humorous glimpse into the life of a man dedicated to hunting, to his community and to his role as a father to his youngest son, aptly named Hunter.

7

MY FAVOURITE FOOD IS INDIAN TACOS, MY FAVOURITE DRINK IS ICED TEA AND MY FAVOURITE THING IS DRUMMING

Darius Matchewan Papatie
Anicinape, Kitiganik

A film about courage and the passions young Darius shares with his friends.

8

NEVER COMES EASY

Nathan Condo
Mi'gmaq, Listuguj

"Never comes easy" is a track about going through the struggles of an artist.

9

THE LEGEND OF QUANJA LAKE

Louie Francis
Anicinape, Wikwemikong

In his second film, Louie Francis (The Bell Rocks) explores the origins of the tales of the great serpent that is rumored to live under lake Quanja.

10

KA TATISHTIPATAKANIT

Isabelle Kanapé
Innué, Pessamit

A man spreads rumours about a local elder. To be forgiven, he will be put to the test. Ka tatishtipatakanit (Ethereal) is a poetic lesson about respect.

11

TIO'TIA:KE - MONTREAL

Amanda Roy
Métis, Montreal

TIO'TIA:KE - MONTREAL is a short documentary about the personal journey of Mohawk Elder Sedalia Kawenno:ta's Fazio in establishing a sweat lodge within the Botanical Gardens of Montreal and her work with the diverse native populations living in the city. Tio'tia:ke is the Mohawk word for Montreal which means "where the currents meet".

12

NADU (HAIR)

Jarret Twoyoungmen
Iyarhe Nakoda, Stoney

In this documentary, Jarret Twoyoungmen shares an important aspect of the Nakoda culture and tradition.

13

ROSE EXPOSED (ROSE S'EXPOSE)

Rose Stiffarm
Anishinabe, Siksika, Cowichan, Tsartlip,
A'aninin and Nakoda, Vancouver

Rose Exposed is an experimental video that talks about the significance of circles, the complexities of identity, and the importance of reflecting ourselves back into the world and the media we make.

